

Olympic Animals

From the Olympic Torch Bearers to the 'three-day eventing', Australian animals played a significant role in the 2000 Olympic Games.

Photos by Christi Valentine-Anderson

Opening Ceremony - Man from Snowy River Theme.

by Christi Valentine-Anderson

Roger, pictured here rounding up boxes in the Opening Ceremony is a Border Collie owned and trained by Richard Biork of Bargo NSW. Richard and his wife Dimicy have trained many animals and quite a few of them have appeared in movies commercials and live performances, such as the Opening Ceremony for the 2000 Sydney Olympics.